

Lansdowne Christian Church (Hull Memorial) 2009 Summer Concert Series on the Patio

The 2009 Concert Series feature a great line-up of quality entertainment that is free to the public on the grounds of the Lansdowne Christian Church (Hull Memorial) at 111 Clyde Ave., Lansdowne, MD 21227 (weather permitting). Show your support by bringing your blankets, lawn chairs, and friends to enjoy the gifts offered to the community by these talented musicians through the generous donations of their time and services on behalf of the church.

Sunday, June 14th at 5:00

Everlove

The Everlove is a project started by 23 year old Ryan Keaton - a singer, songwriter, and performer at heart.

While normally accompanied by a group of three additional musicians in a plugged-in rock band, Ryan also enjoys intimacy of a quiet acoustic performance. His songs primarily focus on his daily thoughts, his "on-again/off-again" relationship with religion, his struggles of everyday life, his constant questioning of what his life is really about, and his attempts to thrive in a world that at times can be perceived as so uncertain and hostile.

Sharing the stage for this concert will be Matt Kuhn (and friends) returning to bring you some oldies with goodies.

Sunday, July 12th at 5:00

Annapolis Junction Big Band

Annapolis Junction Big Band is a 17-piece band featuring the standard mix of saxophones, trumpets, trombones, rhythm, and vocals. This band specializes in big band swing from the classic music of the 30's & 40's. They have played for private and public affairs in and around Annapolis / Baltimore since 1994 and because this band plays mostly swing music, it has also been billed as the Annapolis Junction Swing Band.

Sunday, August 9th at 5:00

The Hilltop Hightops

New to the Patio are the Hilltop Hightops, a bunch of intergalactic misfits who came to Earth in a banana spaceship to save the planet from boring and bland children's music. They play rock music that kids AND parents can get into, and put on a fun show with lots of audience participation.

Sunday, September 13th at 5:00

JUST PLAIN COUNTRY PLUS

Back to the patio by popular demand is Just Plain Country Plus. If you are a country music lover, you can't miss this one. Just Plain Country Plus is a long established group from Pennsylvania playing some of the best of Johnny Cash, Hank Williams, and other old country favorites. This group also features Lansdowne community's own Bob Anderson.