

Wagner Society of New York

The Berlin Festtage: March–April 2002

Tuesday, September 17, 2002, 7:30 pm
Liederkrantz Foundation, 6 East 87th Street, New York

Daniel Barenboim
Conductor

Harry Kupfer
Director

Hans Schavernoch
Designer

One composer, one team, and ten operas created a “cohesion that made it possible to be immersed in the growth of Wagner as a composer and a creative artist in a way not possible in any other venue.”—Wagner Notes, Summer 2002

Program

Color Slides of the Productions

Commentary on the slides by Peter Phillips and other Festtage attendees.

Slide program will include a brief look at the new Bayreuth Tannhäuser.

Panel Discussion

Panelists: Peter Phillips (Moderator), Verena Kosodo, Sam Shirakawa, and other participants to be announced, giving their individual reactions, followed by a discussion.

Admission

Members: Free Non-members: $10.00 donation

No reservations required Social hour after program

For further information: P. O. Box 230949, Ansonia Station, New York, NY 10023–0949

Telephone: 212/749–4561 Fax: 212/749–1542

E-mail: WagnerRing@aol.com Website: <http://www.wagnersocietyny.com>